

11 March 2026 11 March 2026

prioritised activities. This funding update includes an indicative allocation of funds so as to accurately represent the resources available for the country. The contributions earmarked for Malawi shown ...

Parliament has passed the 2026/2027 National Budget, approving a total allocation of K10.978 trillion for government expenditure following weeks of intense scrutiny, debate, and detailed ...

Considering Malawi's low-income status, the significant inflows of ODA have been crucial in supporting poverty reduction, sustainable development, and addressing social and economic inequalities.

Distribution of relief maize to households that have been severely affected by drought and hunger consistent with the recent Malawi Vulnerability Assessment Committee Report;

The approval of this ambitious budget underscores the government's commitment to addressing Malawi's socio-economic priorities. Yet, the road ahead remains challenging, as ...

Government has unveiled an ambitious K8.05 trillion national budget for the 2025/2026 financial year, with a focus on economic stabilization, social protection, and infrastructure development.

Explore our data on investments and results in the fight against AIDS, tuberculosis and malaria.

On February 28, 2025, Malawi's Minister of Finance and Economic Affairs presented the FY2025/2026 budget, themed "Consolidating Gains, Strengthening Resilience, and Inclusivity for Accelerated ...

This limited allocation raises concerns about Malawi's commitment to comprehensive environmental sustainability. With only two out of six focus areas receiving funding, critical aspects such as pollution ...

The government of Malawi has increased the Constituency Development Fund (CDF) allocation to MK5 billion (over US$2.8 million) per constituency for the 2026/27 budget.

Malawi's parliament approved the national budget for the 2026/2027 fiscal year on Tuesday, with total spending set at 10,978 billion Malawian kwacha ($6.8 billion). Agriculture received the largest ...

The current allocation of MK741 billion for the 2025/26 fiscal year, while a nominal increase, falls short of the necessary investments to ensure comprehensive healthcare access for all citizens.

Allocation to Malawi

In the approved budget, the Ministry of Health has been allocated K396 billion, the Ministry of Agriculture has received K667 billion, and the National Assembly has been allocated K57 ...

Web: <https://tlaletsoglobal.co.za>