

Three Chinese firms have dominated the bidding process to build and design the new Berbice River Bridge with bids ranging from US$200 million to as high as US$465 million.

Earlier this year, seven firms were pre-qualified from an initial pool of nine companies and were required to submit price quotations for the new Berbice River Bridge, which will replace the ...

President Ali has staunchly defended his government's plans for the state-of-the-art fixed high span bridge across the Berbice River, saying that concerns about feasibility, costs, and other...

On Saturday, Public Works Minister, Juan Edghill, disclosed that seven of these companies - all foreign contractors - have been shortlisted and are now required to submit price ...

The new bridge, once completed, will mark a significant milestone in Guyana's drive to modernize its infrastructure and enhance connectivity across the country.

President Ali has staunchly defended his government's plans for the state-of-the-art fixed high span bridge across the Berbice River, saying that ...

Kaieteur News - Three companies out of India and four from China are among nine that applied for the Government of Guyana contract to design, build and finance the new Berbice River ...

Of the nine, seven international firms were granted pre-qualification status to design, build and finance the bridge, according to Minister of Public Works, Bishop Juan Edghill.

On Saturday, Public Works Minister, Juan Edghill, disclosed that seven of these companies - all foreign contractors - have been shortlisted and are now ...

In a letter in today's Stabroek News (SN), the letter writer sought to justify the PPP's past decision to construct a floating bridge crossing the Berbice River. Now, 15 years later, they are ...

Back in October, this publication reported that three companies out of India and four from China are among nine that applied for the contract to design, build and finance the new Berbice River ...

Web: <https://tlaletsoglobal.co.za>